Beer Festival 2017

Guests enjoying the different beers

On a sunny afternoon in July 2016, our Friends' Secretary Pauline, who had recently been to a beer festival, suggested we should organise one for the Friends.

Our venue was to be a magical woodland at Round Oak Farm owned by Norman & Ruth Coles. This was a new venture for the Friends but they gave us so much help and advice.

We decided to source local beers and cider, Rockin Robin, Goachers, Nelsons and Double Vision, someone had the great idea of asking for beer barrel sponsors and very kindly Norman Coles, Jan Enever, Tim Ferris, Sue Harris, Joe Hoy, Roy Royer and Martin Sharp offered to do just that.

Food, glorious food...

The band with no name entertaining us all!

We offered food all cooked with meat from the farm, games for children, a raffle and last but not least a band (with no name!) who played a great selection of old and new tunes, everyone was dancing and singing. It turned out to be a cloudy day but in the woodland there was a very friendly, happy atmosphere.

We must just say a big thank you to Tom for putting up the marquee and lots of other jobs to make the day run smoothly, Norman who organised the stage, lighting and lots of other essential things, and many others who offered their time too.

Thanks to families and friends for making the festival such fun, and we raised £1804 for the Friends!

Maybe we should do this again.....
